NSC REVIEW
COMPLETED

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Roger Kirk
Mr. John Richardson, Jr.
(Co-Chairmen, Interagency Group on REFA)

SUBJECT : CIA Comments on Initial Report of the REFA Sub-group on Support for Research on Mid-Term Foreign Policy Problems

answer to White House Paper, Federal Support for Research & Education in Foreign Affairs

I would like to call two places in the referenced memorandum to your attention.

a. In section V, paragraph 3, the final sentence should read, as far as this Agency is concerned, as follows: "CIA has an interest in research on national security matters, but it does not have nor should it have responsibility for supporting university research on foreign affairs." The NSC Staff may or may not wish to associate itself with this wording.

b. Referring to page 11, paragraph 1, section (a),
it seems to me that the magnitude of State's research budget has no connection with whether or not the Department of State seeks the advice of other agencies in the identification of mid-term foreign policy problems.

SUBJECT: Federal Support for Research and Education on Foreign Affairs

Important national interests and federal responsibilities are affected by the increasingly critical situation faced by academic centers which conduct programs of education and research on foreign areas and international affairs. There is thus the need for comprehensive Executive Branch attention to the question of immediate and longer-range federal support for these educational centers and for research directed at mid-term foreign policy problems.

The President therefore has directed the Chairman of the Under Secretaries Committee to establish a special interagency group to analyze the situation, encourage such immediate action as appropriately can be taken by individual departments and agencies, develop options concerning modalities and magnitudes of federal funding, and formulate recommendations. An initial report should be submitted by January 31, 1976.

Each addressee is asked to designate a representative to the special group and to inform the Chairman of the USC of that designation by November 1, 1975.

Henry A. Kissinger
